

Crump, MetLife form brokerage tie

By Editor Test Tue, May 28, 2013

Representatives from MetLife and its affiliates “will have access to a broad portfolio of non-proprietary products that offer a full spectrum of life-related insurance solutions for their clients, leveraging Crump’s tools, services and technology,” a release said.

In a new brokerage relationship between Crump Life Insurance Services and MetLife, Crump will provide sales support, underwriting, technology and brokerage services to MetLife’s financial professionals, Crump announced in a release.

Representatives from MetLife and its affiliates “will have access to a broad portfolio of non-proprietary products that offer a full spectrum of life-related insurance solutions for their clients, leveraging Crump’s tools, services and technology,” the release said.

The new partnership is effective immediately.

© 2013 RIJ Publishing LLC. All rights reserved.