
It's Conference Season

By Editor Test Wed, Feb 15, 2012

The approach of spring brings Grapefruit League baseball, income tax forms and a new parade of retirement industry-related conferences. We've updated our Events calendar just in time for the new season.

Here are some of the important conference dates for the next two months, beginning with next week's annual Morningstar Ibbotson gathering and continuing through the always informative LIMRA/LOMA/Society of Actuaries Retirement Industry Conference (which immediately follows the Life Insurance Conference at the same location).
