
NEXCOM hires Prudential Retirement as recordkeeper

By Editor Test Thu, Aug 1, 2013

NEXCOM's 300 stores and 14,000 employees provides military members, retirees and their families with retail products and services worldwide.

The Navy Exchange Service Command's 401(k) plan, has chosen Prudential Retirement as its recordkeeper, Prudential announced. NEXCOM's 300 stores and 14,000 employees provides military members, retirees and their families with retail products and services worldwide.

The plan has $188 million in assets for about 6,500 participants. Prudential Retirement serves about 3.6 million participants and annuitants and had $299.4 billion in retirement account values as of March 31, 2013.

© 2013 RIJ Publishing LLC. All rights reserved.