
The Launch of Retirement Income Journal

By Editor Test Sun, Jun 7, 2009

Welcome to Retirement Income Journal, the only publication for and about the complex industry that has formed around the challenge and opportunity of helping Baby Boomers turn their life savings into lifelong income. On our website you'll find an accumulation of industry statistics, article archives, research papers, conference schedules, directories, RSS feeds and other resources... Read more »

Welcome to Retirement Income Journal, the only publication for and about the complex industry that has formed around the challenge and opportunity of helping Baby Boomers turn their life savings into lifelong income.

On our website you'll find an accumulation of industry statistics, article archives, research papers, conference schedules, directories, RSS feeds and other resources that will help you succeed.

If you haven't already, I encourage you to register to receive our free weekly e-newsletter. As a newsletter recipient, you'll get timely news and thoughtful analysis of events in the so-called "decumulation industry." We'll cover annuities of all types, structured products, DC plan income options, reverse mortgages, long-term care/annuity hybrids and more.

Our goal is to create a first-stop shop for retirement income aficionados, a 'long-tail' compendium of data or links to data about every aspect of this growing and exciting field.

We urge you to visit the site often and send us your comments, questions, company news and ideas for improvement.

Kerry Pechter
Editor and publisher
Retirement Income Journal
kerry.pechter@retirementincomejournal.com