The 2055 Fund is aimed at investors between ages 18 and 22.

Vanguard in the third quarter will introduce its latest target-date fund offering, aimed at investors between ages 18 and 22, confirmed spokesman Joshua Grandy, Pensions & Investments reported.

The 2055 fund will initially have 72% in Vanguard's Total Stock Market Index fund; 8.8% in its European Stock Index fund; 4.8% in the Vanguard Pacific Stock Index fund and 4.4% in the Vanguard Emerging Markets Stock Index fund. The remaining 10% will be in the Vanguard Total Bond Market II Index fund.

The Vanguard Target Retirement 2055 Fund will be the 12th in Vanguard's lineup, which has garnered $41 billion in net flows over the past three years.
